Fees and commissions charged by the bank are not debited to the CIB Csemete Savings Account. The following transactions that result in a reduction of the balance of the CIB Csemete Savings Account are considered a debit (debit Transaction): cash withdrawal made by the Bank to the account, interbank transfer via GIRO, intrabank transfer and transfer between the Customer's own accounts with CIB Bank. A debit is also considered a debit if the bank debits the CIB Csemete Savings Account because the bank exercises its right of set-off in respect of its claims against the Business Customer.

Otherwise, the amount of the payment/transfer shall be reduced by the fee set out in the List of Conditions in force at the time.

- The CIB Csemete Savings Account may be applied for a Customer of the Bank who has not yet reached the age of 14 at the time of opening the Account.
- CIB Bank is a member of the National Deposit Insurance Fund (NDIF), so its deposits are insured under the Act CCXXXVII of 2013 on Credit Institutions and Financial Enterprises.. The Bank calculates interest based on the number of days actually elapsed and 365 days per year.
In the event of termination of the Savings Account, no interest will be payable for the period from the last Banking Day of the month preceding the calendar month of termination to the Banking Day preceding the day of termination, i.e. for a fraction of a month.
- In all cases, the first paper extract for a given month is free of charge.
- The Statutory Representative may dispose of the CIB Csemete Savings Account up to the positive balance of the CIB Csemete Savings Account, up to a maximum of forty-five times the amount of the social projection fund - currently HUF 1,282,500 - as defined in Article 26/B (3) of Government Decree 149/1997 (IX./10) on guardianship authorities and child protection and guardianship proceedings.

8. In addition to the commission payable on foreign currency transactions involving the Client's Bank Account, any out-of-pocket expenses (e.g. postal charges, DHL courier charges, etc.) related to the executed transactions, as well as any justified fees and commissions incurred due to the involvement of an intermediary bank or banks may – as chosen by the Parties – be charged either to the Client or to the Originator of the foreign currency transaction. (These include, in the case of outgoing foreign-currency payments to destination countries that use the IBAN international bank account number format, the fee charged by the foreign bank if the beneficiary's IBAN-format account number was indicated erroneously on, or omitted from, the payment order.) In case of transfers outside the EEA, if the Client agrees to pay all the fees and charges associated with the transfer, the Client must ensure that sufficient funds are available on the designated account to cover such costs. The precise amounts of the fees and charges differ from bank to bank. Upon fulfilment, the HUF value of the foreign currency transfer fees and costs (e.g. SWIFT), as well as any justified fees and commission incurred due to the involvement of an intermediary bank/banks, financial or other institutions (e.g. surcharge of manual processed transfers), are charged to the Client as and when they arise. These costs can arise in both outbound and inbound foreign currency transfers and can therefore be debited. Transfer orders submitted on a transfer order form are accepted by CIB Bank only on a special foreign currency transfer order form.
9. CIB Bank's sell/buy foreign exchange rate valid on the date of debiting the account is applied to calculate the amount of orders submitted in a currency different from that of the account debited.

10. In the case of foreign exchange transfer orders with a beneficiary who keeps their account with a financial service provider established outside the EEA, if the account holder doesn't agree to pay the foreign bank charges, the transferred amount could be credited to the bank account of the beneficiary reduced by any arising intermediary bank charges, which differ from bank to bank.
11. Pursuant to Act CXVI of 2012 on Financial Transaction Levies (Article 3(4) thereof), for customers who are not considered as Hungarian citizens (i.e., from another Member State or from another state) for tax purposes, the transaction fee rate specified below shall be reduced by 0.45% for fees specified "in %" and by 20.000 HUF per transaction (50,63 EUR / 54,41 USD per transaction for transactions involving a foreign currency account), except for transactions to the Hungarian State Treasury.
