<sup>5</sup> Besides the commission related to the given transaction, the Principal's bank account is debited with the costs and commissions lawfully charged by Magyar Posta Zrt. that arise in connection with the executed transaction, and which are debited at the time they arise. An exception is Magyar Posta's fee charged for each money order, which is debited from the forint account simultaneously with the remittance, and the payment-order's postal production fee, which is charged to the forint account at the start of the month following the month of performance together with the account management fee.

<sup>6</sup> The fee can be charged if the Bank has to correspond with third parties regarding client's matter.

<sup>7</sup> In addition to commissions applicable to foreign currency transactions involving the Customer's Bank Account, any out-of-pocket expenses (e.g. postal charges, DHL courier charges, etc.) related to the executed transactions, as well as any justified fees and commissions incurred due to the involvement of an intermediary bank or banks may, at the Parties' option, be charged to the Customer or to the Originator of the foreign currency transaction. (These include, in the case of outgoing foreign-currency payments to destination countries that use the IBAN international bank account number format, the fee charged by the foreign bank if the beneficiary's IBAN-format account number was indicated erroneously on, or omitted from, the payment order.) In case of transfers outside the EEA, if the Customer undertakes to bear all the fees and charges associated with the transfer, the Customer must ensure that sufficient funds are available on the designated account to cover such costs. The precise amount of fees and charges differ from bank to bank.

<sup>8</sup> CIB Bank's sell/buy foreign exchange rate valid on the date of debiting the account is applied to calculate the counter value of orders submitted in currency different from that of the account debited.
