

CIB EASY 2.0 discount program List of conditions

KL - 0577
Effective from: 11th May 2026.

Any private persons are entitled to access the CIB EASY 2.0 discounts who are in an employment relationship with a company (hereinafter: Partner) that has joined the CIB EASY 2.0 discount program, i.e. there is an agreement signed by the Bank and the Partner (hereinafter: Joining Agreement) in place with respect to the CIB EASY 2.0 discounts.

Only nationals of EEA Member States and of the USA, Canada and the United Kingdom will be eligible (upon presentation of the document(s)¹ required to prove their nationality).

A basic precondition for accessing the discounts under the CIB EASY 2.0 discount program is the provision of evidence of the existence of such employment relationship as of the time that the discount is accessed. The additional conditions and details in respect of the individual discounts can be found in this list of conditions, under the detailed description of the particular discount concerned.

As a part of the discount program, the bank provides discounts with respect to various products. The discounts may also be accessed separately, depending on the choice of the Client and on the products requested or used by him or her. It is necessary that the Client meet the conditions of application for the product to which the discount relates (basic product).

In respect of fees to which the discount does not relate, the latest valid standard fees set out in the CIB ECO Bank Account and the CIB ECO Plus bank account List of Conditions for Consumers shall apply.

The discount related to the auxiliary service that may be applied for in conjunction with the CIB EASY 2.0 discount scheme bank account may be requested by Clients who at the time of application:

- are in an employment relationship with a company (hereinafter: Partner) that has joined the CIB EASY 2.0 discount program, i.e. there is an agreement signed by the Bank and the Partner (hereinafter: Joining Agreement) in place with respect to the CIB EASY 2.0 discounts and,
- the employment relationship with the Partner is certified through a declaration made by the employer (on the form provided for this purpose by the Bank),
- and has a CIB ECO bank account or CIB ECO Plus bank account.

The Bank is entitled to check the existence of the employment relationship by verifying the data with the Partner. In the case of a jointly held bank account, it is the Client that is indicated as the account holder in the bank account agreement (not as the Joint Account Holder) who must comply with the conditions.

Fixing the deposit and placing an order to purchase or subscribe for the related securities is possible at CIB Bank's bank branches and through the CIB24 telephone customer service.

If the investment product part is denominated in euros, then the forint value of it will be calculated at the middle exchange rate set by CIB Bank on the given day.

If the customer redeems or sells the investment product during the term of the deposit, transfers it to another securities account manager, transfers it to another person's securities account, or withdraws the order to purchase or subscribe for the investment product before execution, CIB Bank shall have the right to change the interest rate of the term deposit to the current non-promotional CIB Classic deposit interest rate for the entire term of the deposit.

Securities purchase or subscription orders determined as the precondition for placing the deposit must be submitted on the day of deposit placement.

The deposit can be placed as a one-off or a renewing deposit. In the case of a renewing deposit, the deposit will continue to bear interest in the interest periods following the first interest period with the interest rates of non-promotional CIB Classic deposits of the same maturity.

The current performance of the securities purchased or subscribed for on the date of fixing the deposit as a condition thereof can affect the prospective development of the savings as a whole in both positive and negative directions, therefore, please read the risk factors related to the investment instruments in the information prospectus and management regulations of the investment instruments. The fund prospectuses, management regulations, portfolio reports, annual and semi-annual reports, key information documents about the funds will be made available at our distribution points and on the www.cib.hu, www.cib.hu/Maganszemelyek/megtakaritasok/eurizon_easyfund_befektetesi_alapok and the www.eurizon.hu websites. Statements regarding yields are indicative of performance under normal market conditions but are not a guarantee of future performance. The fund prospectuses and management regulations contain all information that CIB Bank Zrt. is obliged to provide on financial instruments.

The detailed conditions are set out in the Interest Rate Information for HUF term deposits of individuals and sole proprietors, the Foreign Currency Interest Rate Information for foreign currency bank accounts and term deposits of individuals and sole proprietors, and the detailed description of the deposit contract in the Special Terms and Conditions for Deposits for Consumers and Sole Proprietors.
